COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, 28TH JAN. 1879.

THE Bombay Mail of the 6th instant via Brindisi was delivered in London yesterday. Commercial telegrams from Home of yesterday's date report but few changes in the various markets. Consols are still quoted at 96 and French Rentes at 114½. Exchange on India continues at 1s. 7¾d. There is no alteration in the quotation for Enfaced Rupee Paper.

The London General Produce Markets remain steady at previous quotations. The only alteration in the value of Seeds is a decline of 3s. per qr. in Calcutta Linseed to arrive; the markets for both Linseed and Rapeseed are steady. Wheat keeps dull at previous rates.

In Liverpool the Cotton Market yesterday closed quiet, without any quotable alterations in either American or Surat descriptions: the day's sales amounted to 8,000 bales, of which 500 bales were Surats. The market for Piece Goods in Manchester was quiet but steady. At the periodical sales of Tanned Skins and Hides, the demand was slow at a decline of 1d. to 2d. for Goats and 1d. for Sheep. The total amount of skins sold was 1,324,000.

Yesterday's New York telegrams quote ready, Mid. Uplands still at 9¾ cents, and Futures for April delivery at 9·80 cents, per lb. The Receipts at the ports to date are as follows:—

	1878.	1877.	1876
Two days' Receipts	24,000	37,000	32,000
Three ,, ,, ...	59,000	60,000	57,000
Total since 1st Sept.....	3,147,000	3,013,000	3,055,000

Bar Silver in London remains at 51d. per oz.

STERLING EXCHANGE this morning opened weak at yesterday's rates, and in the course of the day a decline of 1-16th per Rupee was established. The weaker feeling is mainly due to increased ease in our Money Market, without any material increase in the number of bills making, of which to counteract the effects. The Calcutta Market has been closed during the day for a holiday. We quote:—

Bank Bills, on demand				per Rs.
Do. 4 months' sight	8	,,	,,	,,
On dits,	8	,,	,,	,,
Documents,	8	,,	,,	,,
France	3	,,	,,	,,

On Calcutta we quote Rs. 100 1-16 for demand, and Rs. 98¼ for 60 days' sight bills.

IN GOVERNMENT PAPER there is no quotable alteration to record. Both buyers and sellers remain particularly quiet, and we have merely to repeat yesterday's rates, say, Fours Rs. 93¾ and Fours-and-a half Rs. 99½.

The SHARE MARKET continues dull with few transactions. In Bank Shares Bombays have further advanced to Rs. 682½. In Spinning and Weaving Companies Colabas have advanced Rs. 10, Dhurumseys Rs. 20, Great Eastern Rs. 10, Manockjee Petits Rs. 5, Morarjees Rs. 25, and Orientals Rs. 15 per share. In Press Companies both Berars and Mofussils have advanced Rs. 10 per share. In other shares there are no alterations of importance.

COTTON has been decidedly weaker, and although sellers are willing to accept easier rates, very little business has been done either ready or forward. Arrivals so far have not shown much signs of increase. We quote:—

Good Hingunghaut Ready	Rs. 212	per candy.
,, Oomrawuttee ,, ...	,, 196	,,
,, ,, Feb'dely.....	,, 190	,,
,, M. G. Broach March ,, ...	,, 205	,,
,, Dholera ,, April ,, ...	,, 185	,,

LINSEED is firm owing to the smallness of supplies at Rs. 6-6 to Rs. 6-7 per cwt.

RAPESEED is maintained at previous rates, but no transactions are reported.

FREIGHTS have undergone no special change. For Liverpool by steamer rates range from £1-2-6 to £1 5, according to time of shipment, but a very limited number of engagements are reported. The rate via Cape for March-April loading is £1-5 per ton. For the Continent quotations are quite unchanged.

COALS are unaltered.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1879.

WE reprinted yesterday from the Daily News a letter in which Mr. Archibald Forbes reviews at some length the relations existing between the Government of India and the Anglo-Indian Press, and comes to the conclusion that Lord Lytton has brought journalism in this country into a state of ignominious bondage. This is a disagreeable impression to be conveyed to the British public by a man who is generally credited with the faculty of quick and accurate observation; and it concerns all of us who practise the calling of journalists in India to ascertain what degree of truth there may be in it. Mr. Forbes comments very fairly, in the first place, on the controversy that arose at the beginning of the war out of the official prohibition of the employment of staff officers as newspaper correspondents. The clamour raised by the Pioneer against the Commander-in-Chief for having issued orders to stop its telegrams is said by Mr. Forbes to have been based on a misapprehension, the restrictions to which correspondents were required to submit having been drawn up by the Foreign Secretary to the Government of India; and possibly Sir F. Haines was only made the victim of so much vulgar and insolent abuse because it was a safe thing to vilify a high official who was supposed not to be on good terms with the Viceroy. As regards the restrictions complained of, we agree with Mr. Forbes that they were not unreasonable, and that the Indian Press would have had no grievance at all if due notice had been given, some time before the opening of the campaign, that they would be enforced. They were to the effect that staff officers could not be allowed to write for the newspapers, and that telegrams sent by correspondents at the front must be countersigned by the General in command or an officer deputed by him for this special duty. But the sudden and arbitrary manner in which the order relating to staff officers was carried out undoubtedly put many Indian papers to great inconvenience. Mr. Forbes mentions several excellent reasons to account for the practice which prevails in this country of engaging staff officers to write the war correspondence of the papers; but he might have given two others. The first is that, as a rule, it is only military men who can write well about campaigning—Mr. Forbes's own case being no exception from this rule, for he owes his success rather to his knowledge of soldiering and the hardy habits he acquired in the army, than to his merits as a man of letters, which have been ridiculously exaggerated. The second reason, which with characteristic delicacy Mr. Forbes refrained from hinting at, is that journalistic enterprise in India is only a paying thing within certain narrow limits, as there does not exist out here a practically unlimited constituency to appreciate and reward an unlimited expenditure, and that most Anglo-Indian journals are necessarily worked with a comparatively small capital. Few papers in India have, therefore, cared to indulge themselves in the expensive luxury of keeping special correspondents with all the columns in the field. Up to the present time, we believe that the only professional correspondent with General Stewart's army is Mr. J. A. Cameron, the representative of the Bombay Gazette, who has marched with the troops from Mooltan to Kandahar, and who, though he has had no stirring events to record, has done a great service to the Bombay Presidency and the Indian Empire by exposing the shameful mismanagement of the expedition into Western Afghanistan, and so compelling the Viceroy to commit at last the whole direction of the transport and commissariat services for the Kandahar column to the Government of Bombay. No officer on the staff of General Stewart's army would have dared to censure the authorities so freely as Mr. Cameron has done; and in this respect we see the advantage which a professional correspondent has over officers actually engaged on active service. We can from our own experience corroborate Mr. Forbes's statement, that professional correspondents have had no obstacles put in their way by the Government of India. Mr. Cameron has been asked not to send us telegrams giving information of contemplated military movements, but beyond the enforcement of this reasonable restriction no efforts have been used to hamper him. On the contrary, the Government of India has done much to help him. This example shows, we think, that the Viceroy has not tried to suppress unfavourable criticism, and, as regards the employment of staff officers as correspondents, it seems only natural that a general in command should be unwilling to let his staff neglect their proper duties in order to ride off in hot haste to the nearest telegraph station with despatches for the newspapers before an important action is well concluded.

Mr. Forbes, however, follows up his elaborate apology for the conduct of the Government of India in this instance by a fierce attack on the poor Press Commissioner, whom he denounces, with the virtuous indignation of a free and unbought journalist, as an instrument employed by Lord Lytton for "the control at once "and the demoralisation of the journals "of our Indian Empire." The Press Commissioner appears to have offended the great "special" by publishing an authoritative contradiction of a statement which Mr. Forbes had telegraphed to the Daily News, that there had been "differences between the "Home and Indian Governments in regard to "the course of action to be taken on receipt of "the Amir's reply of the 6th of October to the "Viceroy's letter." Mr. Forbes declares that he has been "utilized and than thrown over," and insinuates that the Viceroy, by whose order of course this contradiction was published, is trying to throw dust in the eyes of the public by denying that differences of opinion existed which were notorious at the time when the ultimatum was despatched to the Amir. If Lord Lytton really made use of the special correspondent of the Daily News to force the hand of the Home Government and bring on the war on which he had set his heart, we are afraid that most people, instead of sympathising with honest Mr. Forbes,—"a plain man myself, sir," as he says, and one who likes plain dealing in others,—will only be inclined to laugh at the successful audacity of this application of the well-known stratagem of turning their own guns upon the enemy. But we think Mr. Forbes deceives himself. When the circumstantial accounts of the breach between Lord Lytton and the English Ministry were first published, we pointed out that they were probably based on Club gossip at Simla and not on authentic information. The mistake made by Mr. Forbes was in telegraphing the news, not as mere gossip, but as a perfectly trustworthy and semi-official narrative of what had really taken place. He took the Government of India, in fact, under his protection, and spoke with as much warmth as if he had himself been Press Commissioner of the mistake made by Lord Beaconsfield in allowing the Amir a little more time. Of course, he is now greatly irritated at being snubbed for his officious zeal and told, in effect, that Lord Lytton does not want his advocacy. But why should he, in his wrath, turn round on the unfortunate Indian Press, and denounce it for allowing itself to be demoralized by a Press Commissioner who has had the impudence to meet a statement made by him with a point blank denial? The contradiction in question begins with the words, "we are authorized to state," the ordinary form used in all countries, even in England itself, by the newspapers in making announcements communicated by Government. As a matter of fact, the paragraph thus worded was published in the English as well as the Indian newspapers, and it is obviously

It appears that when Mr. Nursey Kessowjee failed to obtain loans on account of the four Spining and Weaving Mills, on which he was secretary, treasurer, and agent, his father, Mr. Kesowjee Naik, got them for him, in some instances by giving his personal guarantee for the repayment of them. In this way two loans of Rs. 75,000 each were obtained on account of the New Alexandra and the New Fleming Companies and a loan of Rs. 50,000 for the Nursey Spinning Company. All the three loans were obtained on the 7th December last from Hajee Tyeb bin Hajee Rahimtulla, Rustomjee Dosabhoy Setna, and Dadabhoy Hormusjee Dubash, the executors of the last will of the late Hajee Ismail Hajee Habib. The companies having failed to repay the loans, the executors sued Kessowjee Naik on the written personal guarantees given by him; and yesterday Mr. Justice Bayley passed decrees against him for an aggregate sum of Rs. 2,00,000, with interest at 7½ per cent. per annum from the 7th December 1878, costs, and interest on the judgment at 6 per cent.

At a meeting held yesterday, to which the Reporters of the Press were not admitted, the Town Council resumed the consideration of tenders for the construction of the new drainage works for Bombay. No decision was, however, arrived at, when, after 4 o'clock, the Council adjourned until 3 p. m. to-day.

THE Chamber of Commerce yesterday confirmed the report of its Sub-Committee (Messrs. Mowat, Kistredge, and Bythell) on the subject of the prices which the Chamber considers Government should pay for the private foreshore properties proposed to be purchased to form part of the new Port Trust Estate. The following resolution, proposed by Mr. J. A. Forbes and seconded by Mr. Walter Lang, was carried by a large majority:—"That the Chamber thanks the Sub-Committee for their report on the foreshore properties, and authorises the same to be forwarded to Government, along with the proceedings of this meeting, as showing the views held by the members of the Chamber, and that Government be urged to complete the purchase of the foreshore properties at once." There was no real opposition to the Report itself, the chief objection urged against it being that details were not given—which objection was met by the answer that the details through which the Sub-Committee had waded were so very voluminous that it was impossible to include them; but Mr. Paterson (Graham and Co.) reviewed the whole question of the purchase of the foreshore properties and the creation of a Government monopoly, and concluded by moving the following:—"That in the opinion of this Chamber a foreshore monopoly is undesirable, being contrary to the principles of free trade, and that Government be urged to abandon the new Port Trust scheme, which we believe will prove to be detrimental and burdensome to the trade of this port and injurious to the interests of the whole Presidency." This amendment was not likely to meet with much favour, the Chamber having already distinctly approved of the purchase of the properties by Government, but Mr. Paterson succeeded in finding a seconder in Mr. Peel (Peel, Cassells and Co.), and two other gentlemen (Mr. Gilbert, of Messrs. Aldridge, Salmon and Co., and Mr. Dickson, of Messrs. E. Bates and Co.), besides the mover and seconder, supported it with their votes. The same four gentlemen were the only ones who voted against the original motion.

MR. MOWAT, Chairman of the Bombay Chamber of Commerce, at the meeting yesterday, broached the important question of the advisability of electing "gentlemen distinguished for public services or eminent in commerce and manufactures" honorary members of the Chamber. Mr. Mowat is distinctly of opinion that the election of such gentlemen to assist the Chamber in its work would be of great advantage, and he mentioned the names of Mr. William Rathborne, M. P., for Liverpool, and Mr. J. M. Maclean, in Bombay, as gentlemen who have already done good service in causes advocated by the Chamber.

THE Bombay Chamber of Commerce has received notice that the Engineer in charge of the Western Rajputana Railway has been instructed to lay the permanent way on the metre gauge. It is proposed, we understand, to call a public meeting in the Town Hall to protest against what is generally considered in Bombay to be a mistaken policy, calculated to cramp the trade and resources of the country.

THE Indian Mirror:—If it be true, as a correspondent of our contemporary, the English man, writes, that the Presidency Banks' Act of 1876, is under amendment by the Supreme Legislative Council, it seems to us that his suggestion for the appointment of two ex-officio Directors from among the high officers of Government as an additional guarantee, for the proper management of such Banks, would hardly meet the requirements of the case. The mere presence of two Government officers at the meetings of the directors, would per se be no proof that the transactions of the Banks had always been quite en regle. It is not only that two Government officers should always form part of the direction of the Presidency Banks, but as they are incorporated, under Act XI. of 1876, their accounts might be subjected to responsible audit by the Government, which practically vouches for the proper management of the affairs of such Banks. Nor is this all. To secure a closer degree of supervision, we submit that as the Native community of India holds, perhaps, the largest interest in these Banks, in which vast sums of money belonging to them are sunk, any amendment of the present law should insist that a fair proportion of Native gentlemen should be appointed to take part in the direction. Unless some stringent precautions are taken as regards the management of these useful institutions, we can never be assured that the catastrophe, which overwhelmed the Glasgow Bank so recently, may not occur in the case of some of our own Banks. However high and deserved may be our confidence in the reliability of the present direction and management of our local Banks, it would be absurd to expect that we can count on a succession of good Directors and Managers for all a time to come. If the Presidency Banks' Act is really to be amended at all we submit that the amendment should be thorough and comprehensive, availing itself of the lights poured into Bank direction and management by the scandalous disclosures as respects the affairs of the Glasgow Bank.

THE Statesman:—We would suggest earnestly to the Local Government the necessity of making a somewhat close enquiry into the real pressure of the Licence-Tax upon the poorer classes of Bengal. We are told that there is very great suffering everywhere, owing to the extreme prices of the necessaries of life in the provinces, and it is not possible, we think, to doubt it. The people are widely reduced to one meal a day in what we call 'wealthy' Bengal, and under pressure of this order, it requires no force of imagination to tell us how keenly this Licence Tax must be felt. The Bengalee says:—"Living, as we often have to do in the far interior, we have daily and hourly to witness the alarm that is spreading among the agriculturists, and to listen to the futile complaints that they make. The assessor is abroad, and the poor man who has a cart, or the ryot who has an extra pair of bullocks, trembles in dismay. Wherefore the bullocks and the cart? To bring his dhan from the field in the harvest season. Is that all? No other work during the remaining eleven months in the year? Sometimes they are let out on hire when required by another villager. Put him down as a dealer, says the assessor, and the poor man's heart dies within him. Can the poor man appeal? His appeal is heard by the very assessor or circle officer who has enrolled him! These are the cruel facts that have raised a cry of dissatisfaction all over the country. We beg of the Government to institute enquiries; if we are mistaken, we shall be the foremost to acknowledge it, and to express our deepest regret."

THE Indian Mirror:—"The high prices prevailing in the food-market are the cause of dear and wide-spread distress among the people throughout India, and it seems to us that some measures should be taken for ascertaining whether and how the present upward tendency of prices can be most effectually arrested. The poorer classes are already suffering much distress; but, if this distress be prolonged or intensified, we are afraid that the most serious consequences, for which we are not prepared, may ensue. Under such a gloomy aspect of things, it seems to us that the Government, as a first instalment of passive relief, might well see the propriety of relaxing the stringency with which the Licence Tax Act is now being enforced throughout the country, ostensibly for raising a Famine Insurance Fund, but really and truly for supplementing the available sources of supply for the expenditure incurred in the war on Afghanistan."

THE Pioneer:—The gloomy apprehensions expressed as to the outturn of the spring harvest are not without foundation. We find that in the Allahabad district the rainfall of the last two years has been but forty-four inches or less than the average of a single ordinary year; and though the fall of 1878 was nearly twice as large as that of 1877, it was insufficient to penetrate and cool the subsoil, the abnormal heat of which has so desiccated the surface that for want of moisture the crops now standing are in peril. The same cause must be operating throughout the N. W. P. and Oudh, for Saturday's Gazette represents rain as much needed everywhere and prospects generally as doubtful in its absence.

THE South of India Observer:—Although it was not stated where the Famine Commission would be found, a few planters and some of the local officials discovered these gentlemen at Shoreham, and were examined one at a time with closed doors. The labours of Messrs. Caird, Peile and Sullivan must have been very onerous, as they were in an inordinate hurry to get to tiffin or take the open air. We trust the hardships that this state of the inner man indicated did not interefere with the character of the information obtained, or the lucidity of the observations recorded. There appeared an inclination in the Commission to adhere to their text, and a strange impatience when any of the deponents departed from the thread of the subject upon which their views were sought. This hole and corner enquiry does not invest the work of the Commission with much dignity, and we shall not be surprised to find some very crude views enunciated upon which it would be fatal to base a Government policy, at least for the Neilgherries.

THE crops in the Punjab are as seriously in want of rain, we (Pioneer) hear, as those of the N. W. P. The prospects of the future are getting very alarming in this respect.

THE Japan Weekly Mail says:—The well known rifle shot, Colonel Murata, has been engaged for many years, perfecting a gun of his invention; five of these have been submitted to the War Department, who have appointed a committee to test them.

THE Pioneer:—We greatly regret to hear that Mr. G. Butt, C. S., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, N. W. P., died yesterday morning (Jan. 26) very suddenly and unexpectedly. He had been suffering, we understand, from colic for some days, but no one supposed that he was in any danger, and he seemed better on Saturday evening.

A PUBLIC meeting was to be held at Allahabad on Monday, to adopt measures for commemorating Mr. Justice Turner's services to the town, by establishing some sort of charitable endowment in his name.

AT a meeting of the Legislative Council of the Straits Settlements, held on the 14th inst., says the Straits Times;—"H. E. the Governor was able to make the satisfactory announcement that he had arranged with the Eastern Extension, &c., Telegraph Co., who are laying down a duplicate cable to Penang, for establishing communication with Malacca, on an annual subsidy of £1,000 for ten years, part of which may be recovered from the Native States bordering on Malacca territory."

THE Civil and Military Gazette (Sind issue):—The utterly absurd, impolitic, and reprehensible system of conferring local rank on officers belonging to British troops and pitchforking them over the heads of those of the Indian service who are their seniors, is attracting attention, we hear, in the proper quarter, and there will soon be such a clamour raised that His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will find it a task of some difficulty to subdue it. There is not the slightest difference so far as we can see between "Queen's officers" and "Indian officers." Both hold Her Majesty's commission; both study the profession of arms theoretically as well as practically, and both are called upon to discharge precisely the same kind of duties. Why should then one class be favoured more than the other? Why should the 'loaves and fishes' of the service be monopolised by one to the prejudice of the other? It is this sort of thing that causes heart-burning and jealousies, and induces good men and true" to throw up the service with disgust. The appointment of Brigadier General Brice, to the command of the Sind district, we have no hesitation in characterising as a gross injustice to Colonel Beville, C. B., who at present commands the Sind Frontier Force. That officer holds a commission senior to General Brice's and ought therefore to have succeeded Brigadier General Howard-Vyse on the transfer of the latter to Poona. We have nothing to say against Brigadier-General Brice. He is no doubt an estimable officer, and presumably qualified to discharge the duties of his position. It is no fault of his if he has been sent to Sind to supersede a brother officer. It would be absurd to blame him in the slightest way. The fault lies at the door of the Commander-in-Chief who has introduced a system which cannot be sufficiently denounced and exposed. The claims of the officers of the Indian service have been more than once supercilliously ignored by him, and it is time that these gentlemen should be up and doing, and show His Excellency and those of his way of thinking that they cannot allow such a studied and grievous insult—for it is really nothing more nor less—to pass without seeking redress in the proper quarter. We hope Colonel Beville will not permit the present occasion to pass without taking some action to uphold the right his commission and his position in the service give him. It is not only due to himself but to the Indian service of which he has been a not undistinguished member for upwards of a third of a century.

THEY have been enjoying seasonable weather in Shanghai, as well as at home. The North China Herald of Jan. 4th says:—Three mornings last week there was bearing ice on several of the flooded fields behind the Hospital, and a goodly number of skaters, including a few ladies, earnestly engaged in the sport until either the sun melted the ice or it was wanted by the owner to stow away for summer use. To prolong the enjoyment as much as possible, a few enthusiasts made arrangements on Monday to recompense the owner for not gathering the ice on a particular pond, and publicly announced the fact; and on Tuesday morning on this and other ponds in the vicinity upwards of fifty skaters could be counted at seven o'clock, while there was a very fair gathering of spectators, but the keen frosty air and nipping wind made standing anything but pleasant. It continued to freeze throughout the whole of the two following days, but the weather yesterday and to-day became much milder and the ice has nearly disappeared.

THE Ceylon Times of Monday, Jan. 20th, tells the following doleful tale:—"On Friday morning many a Colombo housekeeper was startled on being informed that there was no meat to be had, in consequence of a strike amongst the butchers, caused by an increase in the fee exacted from them by the Municipality for the slaughtering of each animal. This, we were informed, had been suddenly raised very nearly sixty per cent. But the startling news was converted into dismay the next day, when the citizens of Colombo learnt that the state of siege continued, that the Municipality held out, and that the butchers were on their part resolved not to give in, until the fee should be reduced to the old figure. By this time households had consumed whatever meat had remained in larders from the previous day's meals, and those who had not a joint of salt meat, or a few tins of preserved provisions turned their attention to the poultry yard and the fish market. There again they met with the dismal intelligence that the fishermen and the dealers in poultry, taking advantage of the butchers' default, had raised their demands to double the usual figures. The smallest fowl could not then be had under a rupee, and a duck, no matter how ancient or bony, was not to be obtained for less than from five to six shillings, whilst suspicious eggs were two pence each. To add to the pressure on our local food resources, several steamers in port are indenting rather largely on the dubashes, so that these gentlemen were at their wits end for supplies, and had to despatch agents to many of the stations along both lines of railway, to scour the country for supplies of any kind." After this, it is reassuring to read in the same paper:—"The strike was, we understand, partially at an end yesterday, and meat was again on sale in some of the shops."

THE KHOST EXPEDITION.

THE following telegram was published in the Times of India yesterday:—

KHOST, THROUGH HAZAR PIR, JAN. 27.

Yesterday forenoon immense crowds of people were observed to have assembled to the north of the camp. At first it was wondered whether they were friendly or hostile. It turned out, however, that they were Mongols come to pay their respect from the vicinity of the Chappridafile; and also people belonging to Khost.

This afternoon, at three o'clock, General Roberts held a durbar, at which the head men of the Khost Valley assembled. A band played, and there was a guard of honor composed of the 72nd Highlanders, who appeared in full dress. Everything was done to give the durbar an appearance of eclat. When the maliks had sat down, General Roberts made a speech of considerable importance, which was translated by Hyat Khan, the assistant political officer. The General said they had been assembled to hear the arrangements proposed to be made on the departure of the British troops from Khost. He reminded them that the present quarrel was only with the Amir Shere Ali, who was ill-advised enough to throw himself into the hands of the Russians, by whom he was encouraged to hope for men, arms, and money. The General warned them that Russia had nothing to spare, in consequence of the Turkish war, in which she lost in killed and wounded 250,000 men. Her treasury was empty and she was trying in vain to replenish it, as no body would trust her. The Amir Shere Ali would never return unless he were prepared to accept British terms. If Yakub Khan persisted in fighting, he would have to follow his father's example and fly from Kabul. General Roberts alluded to the defeat everywhere of the Afghan soldiers, and then said it was at first intended to leave a British force to garrison the Khost, but the idea was now abandoned, and it was decided to leave the Sultan Jan Shahzada, a man of good family and high character, to govern Khost. The arrangements were only temporary, and what form the Government of the Khost country would ultimately take, it was impossible to say. This, however, he could promise that, so long as the people of Khost remained under the protection of the Empress of India, their interests would be carefully guarded, and everything that could be done by a just government would be done to render their existence a happy and contented one. A great future was in store for Khost. The country was fertile, and only required peace and security of life to make it capable of great development. Much would depend upon the people themselves, and he called upon them to drop their private feuds and combine to support the Shazada. If they were united in a common cause, the people of Khost would be able to hold their own against the turbulent tribes of the surrounding hills without the assistance of British troops. In conclusion, he said that the British troops would always be at hand at Hazar Pir and Koorum, ready to march to the Khost country to quell disturbances if they were wanted.

The durbar then dispersed. General Roberts went to some of the places where the Mongols were sitting, and made a few good-humored remarks to them, saying he was glad to see them, and warning them to behave themselves. He dismissed them with a present of twenty sheep for a big dinner; and some of them got money to pay their expenses. It was most amusing to see these men slouching [illegible] the rupees and asking if they

CONVOCATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF BOMBAY.

THE annual Convocation of the University of Bombay for conferring degrees on the graduates and undergraduates was held yesterday afternoon in the Sir Cowasjee Jehangier Hall of the University, Esplanade. Immediately at the foot of the dais, in two groups on the east and west sides of the main passage, the former graduates were accommodated in parallel rows of chairs; while in two parallel lines running in continuity with and to the north of these groups, a large number of the public—ladies and gentlemen—were seated in well appointed rows of benches extending to the main entrance of the Hall. In the trilateral gallery above, another portion of the public—larger if less important in position than the first—were accommodated in seats arranged in tiers. Outside in the eastern portion of the Hall compound, the Governor's Band played some excellent music. Precisely at 5-15 p.m., the Fellows of the University, who had collected in the University Library to robe, marched in procession with the Vice-Chancellor into the Hall, when all present rose and remained standing until the Vice-Chancellor had taken his seat. BILLIARD TABLES.

THE undoubted and established superiority of C. L. & Co.'s Billiard Tables is amply proved by the constant and increasing demand for them, showing that they are really the only tables now appreciated in India. This success is due to the steadfast efforts C. L. & Co. have always exerted to supply their constituents with really trustworthy and reliable articles at as moderate a price as is compatible with good workmanship and material. The generous and liberal support extended to C. L. & Co. for upwards of half a century, is sufficient proof that their endeavours to render satisfaction have been appreciated by a critical and discerning public.

While the superiority of C. L. & Co.'s Billiard Tables has been universally admitted in India, yet the difficulties and risks of transport have hitherto prevented their friends in Bombay from largely availing themselves of the undoubted advantages offered by C. L. & Co.

Now, however, C. L. & Co. beg to intimate to their patrons in the Western Presidency, that they have made arrangements which will enable them to offer their Billiard Tables at the same prices in Bombay as in Calcutta. A Branch Agency, under the management of MESSRS. SOUNDY & Co., has been established at No. 22, Rampart Row, where Billiard Tables of C. Lazarus & Co.'s manufacture are arranged for sale; and while thanking their constituents for the patronage hitherto extended to their Firm, C. L. & Co. venture to express a hope that, with the increased facilities now offered, their manufactures will be as well known in Bombay as they are already in other parts of India.

BILLIARD CUSHIONS.

C. Lazarus & Co. always keep on hand a large stock of their new and improved COMBINATION EXPRESS Billiard Cushions which can be fitted to any table, the exact length and breadth of the slate-bed being the only information required.

Old Billiard Cushions, if the woodwork is in good condition, can be renewed on the new COMBINATION EXPRESS principle, thereby making an old table as good as new.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

C. Lazarus & Co. guarantee the SAFE ARRIVAL of their Billiard Tables at any Station in India. Should any breakage occur in transit, C. L. & Co. agree to make good the loss without further charge.

BILLIARD LAMPS.

The six-light telescopic lamp, on the duplex principle, to burn kerosine oil, as adapted by C. L. & Co., is the best Billiard lamp ever introduced.

C. L. & Co. have always on hand a large assortment of Billiard, Pool and Pyramid Balls, in Ivory or "Patent Celluloid," Billiard Cloth, of the finest quality only, Cues, Tips, Chalks, Cement and every requisite for the Billiard Room.

The Security of Policyholders is made complete by the large subscribed Capital of the Company, guaranteed by a numerous and influential body of Proprietors, a list of whom is periodically registered in the Court of Chancery, pursuant to the provisions of the Special Act of Parliament (4 and 5 Vict., Cap. XCII.) empowering this Institution.

The highest attainable economy has been afforded to Policyholders by means of an entirely new set of Tables computed for the especial use of the Indian Branches of this Institution.

No labour or expense has been spared in the construction of these Tables: and the Directors have much gratification in directing attention to them, being confident that they will meet the views, and satisfy the exp
